May Events

Silent Auction (3rd-5th)

The Silent Auction fundraiser runs the 3rd through 5th. There are a bunch of awesome items and services to bid on! This is our final fundraising opportunity before camp season, so don't miss out! you can see all the items and bid by visiting www.32auctions.com/3rwcamp2024

Dedication Sunday (12th)

It is tradition in the Wesleyan church we dedicate infants to the Lord. We have some new parents who will be participating in this tradition on May 12th. Be sure to come and show your support for our growing church community!

Church Work Day (18th)

Our church community is blessed to have some great facilities in which to gather. Please join us from 9am-12pm as we clean and do some maintenance around the building and grounds. We will have some outdoor and indoor jobs. Listen on upcoming Sundays for more detail.

Destiny Rescue Visit (19th)

Destiny Rescue is one of our mission partners. Their CEO, Jason Tash, is going to join us and bring the message on May 19th. We will be taking a missions offering.

Hosting the Vote Voluneers (7th)

We have the opportunity to serve our community by hosting the vote on May 7th. We could use a couple volunteers to be present while the poles are open. Email kyle@3rivers.church if you would be interested in helping out.

Build the Road! --> Pledge Campaign

"Build the Road" Campaign - On Vision Sunday we shared the news of the new project to build an additional driveway on our property connecting us to Butler Road. Our target is $35,000 to begin the work. Pledge cards will be received during the months of May and June and are available at the HUB. Email Pastor Kyle if you have any questions about this project at Kyle@3rivers.church.

Art Camp Registration
